Cenepa War (1995)

This brief conflict was fought between Peru and Ecuador in 1995, over the control of the Canepa valley on Peruvian territory. There had been earlier military confrontations over this area between the two nations, one in 1941 (the Ecuadorian-Peruvian War), resulting in a border treaty later disagreed with by Ecuador, and another brief confrontation in 1981. The war was initiated by Ecuadorian outposts at the Cenepa River that were discovered by a Peruvian patrol. Peru claimed that the existence of these outposts constituted a violation of Peruvian territory and gave Ecuador an ultimatum to withdraw its patrols or they would be dislodged by force. The deadline passed and Peruvian troops were deployed to the area to remove the Ecuadorian posts, followed by a general mobilization by both sides. Heavy air and ground attack were carried out from the end of January until 28 February when a bilateral ceasefire agreement was signed. In March 1995, the Military Observer Mission to Ecuador and Peru came to Canepa, which was later turned into a demilitarized zone, to supervise the separation of forces. Furthermore, both governments negotiated the final demarcation of the border, resulting in the Rio Protocol, signed 26 October 1998.

Title IV of this agreement (pages 5-6) deal with the setting up of the border regime:

Border Regime

Article 12

The Parties will prioritise programs and projects, aimed at establishing providing services to the tourist and commercial networks of the common border, through signing an Agreement on the Transit of People, Vehicles, Sea and River Vessels, and Aircrafts, which appears as Annex 2 of this Agreement.

The structure and the powers of the border regime's Binational Technical Committee appear in Appendix B of said agreement.

Article 13

Border Committees will be established as binational coordination mechanisms, as subsidiaries of the border regime's Binational Technical Committee, to supervise and assist in the implementation of the agreements related to the border regime. The Border Committees Regulation is included in Annex 3 of this agreement.

Article 14

In addition to the existing border crossings at Aguas Verdes-Huaquillas and Tina-Macará, the Parties agree to enable new border crossings at Cariamanga-Ayabaca, Lalamor-El Alamor and Zumba-Namballe, which will come into operation within a period of no more than 180 days.

Through an Exchange of Notes the Parties may establish other border crossings and enable any facilities that may be necessary to meet requirements of the traffic that will be generated on both sides of the border, and to promote trade between the two countries. This procedure will also enable the closure any of the crossing when this would be considered desirable by both Parties.

Article 15

During the first year of this Agreement, the Parties will improve and expand their administrative facilities and concentrate and simplify border controls. National Border Centres (CENAF) will be established where necessary. The first CENAF will be built at the border crossing of Aguas Verdes-Huaquillas and Tina-Macará. Subsequent CENAFS will be built at Lalamor-El Alamor and Zumba-Namballe.

Article 16

The Parties also undertake to sign, within a period of 120 days, an Agreement on Border Trade Fairs and Festivals, to replace the existing mechanisms contribute to promote trade and cultural exchange in the border region.

Article 17

The Parties will establish a Binational Committee for the Promotion and Protection of People's Rights in the Peru-Ecuadorian Border Region.

This matter is also the topic of Annex 3, pages 23-27
