The ECOWAS Standing Mediation Committee was represented at the Conference as follows:

- Honourable Major-General (rtd) Ike Nwachukwu
Minister of External Affairs, Nigeria.
- Honourable Mr. Yaoui Adodo
Minister of External Affairs, Togo

- Honourable Dr. Mohammed Ibn Chambas

Other dignitaries present at the Conference included; the Special Representatives of the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the Secretary-General of the Organisation of African Unity, respectively, and members of the Diplomatic Corps residing in Monrovia. Also in attendance at the Conference were a large number of Liberians, many of whom had returned from abroad, and members of the international press.

INTERIM GOVERNMENT: NEGOTIATIONS

As the purpose of the Conference was to restore peace to Liberia through the formation of an interim government, acceptable to the Liberian People, with the capacity to hold free and fair elections, delegates were engaged in numerous, long, tedious, serious and delicate negotiations, the NPFL Delegation insisted on taking a week's break and walked out of the Conference shortly after presenting the NPFL Proposals on the interim government and outlining the reasons for the walk-out.

The core of the NPFL Proposals are as follows:

1. A Triumvirate Council of co-equals, called the Council of National Unity, should run the Executive arm of Government; in effect, there should be three heads-of state serving as co-equals;
2. The Legislature should be called the Assembly of National Unity with twenty-six (26) members, two of whom coming from each of the thirteen (13) counties, and
3. The present structure of the Judiciary should be in force, with principal emphasis on its independent posture.

In terms of the walk-out, the NPFL Delegation cited as reasons, the lack of adequate consideration of the NPFL Proposals, the continuous presence of Archbishop Michael Kpakala Francis and Shiekh Kafumba Konneh as Conference Co-Chairman, whom they have accused of being biased by the Delegation, and the failure of the Credentials committee to respond to the application for the seating of representatives from NPFL held counties. The Conference responded to the grounds for the NPFL walk-out by (a) accepting, in principle, the concept of a triumvirate ruling council while making an adjustment to have a Chairman and two Co-Chairmen for the Council of National Unity; (b) expressing an overwhelming vote of confidence in the chairing abilities of Archbishop Francis and Shiekh Konneh, and (c) accrediting the county representatives.

Continuous efforts were exerted by the Conference to encourage the NPFL Delegation to return to the Conference hall. These efforts were unsuccessful. As the NPFL Delegation was not in attendance at the Conference immediately prior to elections, the Conference decided to revert to the republican structure of government.
