

30 08 1993

To the authorities of Nagorno-Karabakh

Copied to MFA, Russian Federation

1. In case of a reciprocal commitment from both parties, in continuation of the agreements dated 24 and 28 July and 17 August 1993, we commit to renew the universal ceasefire from the period starting 31 August till 10 September 1993 (inclusive).
2. The parties confirm that their official representatives will agree this before 05 September, and a compulsory meeting between the top leaders of Azerbaijan and Nagorno-Karabakh, about which an agreement was previously reached, will be held before 10 September.
3. The parties will assume the most resolute measures in order to ensure that field commanders uphold the ceasefire especially regarding prohibition of the advancement of tanks, as well as rocket and artillery fire, and aerial bombardments. They will hold those who breach the agreement, and their direct commanding officers, accountable.
Simultaneously measures will be assumed for the exposure of uncontrolled armed units or groups, their withdrawal from line of contact of the parties, and further disbandment and disarmament.
4. The parties agree to maintain constant and direct telephone contact at the highest levels of army command officers in order to prevent and settle ceasefire violations.
