Three

The delegations of the BTG and of the BIG expressed their intention to convene a new round of Talks in Bougainville in March/April 1996. In order to ensure the success of the Talks, they have agreed to hold a series of preparatory meetings comprised of four members from each side, with the facilitation of the United Nations Secretary-General, at a venue to be determined.

Both sides agreed subject to the concurrence of the Papua New Guinea Government to the continued association of the Secretary-General of the United Nations and of the Secretary-General of the Commonwealth in the on-going discussions and in their eventual outcomes.

Five

Representatives of the International Commission of Jurists (ICJ) and the Unrepresented Nations and Peoples Organisation (UNPO) have participated and may continue to participate in an observer capacity in the Talks. At each round of Talks, the delegations will determine the degree of confidentiality that will apply.

Seven

The two sides have reached agreement on the Agenda for the All Bougainville Leaders Talks (Annex 2), it being understood that the discussion of the items need not follow the order in which they are enumerated.

Eight

The two sides will endeavour to reach early agreement on the issues covered in the Agenda so that talks may be held between the Government of Papua New Guinea and the Bougainville leadership.

Nine

All parties to the Talks agree on the need for access to be immediately granted throughout Bougainville to UNICEF and relevant donor organisations for the implementation of health care programmes, especially child immunisation.

Ten

In so far as the BTG, the United Nations and the Commonwealth Secretariat are concerned, the understandings contained in this document are subject to the agreement of the Government of Papua New Guinea.

Eleven

The delegations expressed their appreciation to the Government of Australia for the excellent arrangements it had made for hosting the meeting.

Twelve

The Representatives of the Secretary-General of the United Nations and of the Secretary-General of the Commonwealth will report to the Government of Papua New Guinea on the results of the current talks.
