

JOINT STATEMENT

The GRP and MILF Peace Panels resumed the peace negotiations after a fourteen-month impasse since September 2006. The 14th Exploratory Talks which opened on November 14, 2007 in Kuala Lumpur successfully ended today with the resolution of outstanding issues on the territory strand of the Ancestral Domain aspect.

Building on the progress attained during the special meeting last October, both sides affirmed all previous points of consensus on the core items of the territory issue, and achieved significant headway in defining key principles relating to maritime domains. The successful outcome of discussions clears the way for the drafting of the memorandum of agreement on Ancestral Domain which shall be tabled at the Formal Peace Talks scheduled early 2008.

Both sides discussed the current limited tenure of the International Monitoring Team (IMT) and decided to jointly appeal to the Malaysian Government to accede to their request for extension of the tour of duty of the IMT personnel, and expansion of the IMT areas of coverage as earlier agreed.

The appeal was presented by the Chairmen of both Panels during a brief courtesy call on the Hon. Deputy Prime Minister and concurrent Minister of Defense YAB Dato' Sri Hj. Mohd Najib bin Tun Hj. Abdul Razak who responded positively.

Both sides agreed to immediately renew the interim guidelines of the Ad Hoc Joint Action Group (AIJAG) for a period of one (1) year beginning November 16, 2007.

Both Panels considered and accepted the offer of the Government of Canada to join the International Monitoring Team (IMT).

Both Panels also considered and accepted the proposal of the Philippine Campaign to Ban Landmines (PCBL) and the Swiss Foundation for Mine Action (Fondation Suisse de Deminage - FSD), subject to the final determination of the terms of reference by the Joint Ceasefire Committees.

The Panels conveyed their appreciation to H.E. Prime Minister YAB Dato' Seri Abdullah bin Hj. Ahmad Badawi for the Malaysian Government's continued assistance in keeping the peace process on track, and to H.E. President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo's continued support in pushing forward the Mindanao peace process.
